LIVING & DINING

Having been deeply involved in Phuket's real estate industry for many years, I've witnessed firsthand the evolving lifestyles of tourists and expatriates. From pre-COVID days to various global upheavals, the way foreigners live and work in Thailand, especially in Phuket, has significantly changed.

This influx of international visitors sparked a key insight: to truly meet their needs, we must create living spaces that cater to the modern, global citizen. Recognizing the rise of digital nomads, we envisioned Lavisco—a place where comfort, convenience, and community come together.

Lavisco represents our dedication to crafting exceptional homes tailored for those who seek not just a residence, but a lifestyle. Welcome to Lavisco Living—where we redefine living in Phuket.
